or private information for which special protection may be warranted. Accordingly, the ~~parties~~Parties hereby stipulate to and petition the ~~court~~Court to enter the following Stipulated Protective Order: (“Order”). The ~~parties~~Parties acknowledge that this ~~agreement~~Order is consistent with LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or responses to discovery, the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled to confidential or highly confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles, and it does not presumptively entitle ~~parties~~Parties to file confidential or highly confidential information under seal.

~~2. — “CONFIDENTIAL” MATERIAL~~

~~“Confidential” material shall include the following documents and tangible things produced or otherwise exchanged: [The parties must include a list of specific documents such as “company’s customer list” or “plaintiff’s medical records,” do not list broad categories of documents such as “sensitive business material”].~~

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Challenging Party. A Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of Discovery Material under this Order.

2.2 Competitive Decision-Making. Participation in decision-making regarding a firm’s business operations, including the development or implementation of competitive strategies, business plans, and third-party negotiations, or other decisions made in light of similar corresponding information about a competitor, except when such participation is for the purpose of rendering legal advice as to litigation or antitrust issues.

2.3 Counsel. “Counsel” shall mean, as applied to outside counsel, counsel retained by a Party or Parties in connection with the Action and any Related Action (“Outside Counsel”). As applied to in-house counsel, it shall mean any lawyer employed (or previously employed, at the time of the pertinent communication) by a Party (“In-House Counsel”). As applied to Plaintiffs, this includes, but is not limited to, (a) any attorneys who are, or previously were (at the time of the

1 pertinent communication), employed by the Federal Trade Commission, and (b) any attorneys who
 2 are, or previously were (at the time of the pertinent communication), employed by the relevant
 3 office of a Plaintiff State (“Counsel for Plaintiffs”). As applied to All Parties, the term Counsel
 4 also includes, but is not limited to, any economists, financial analysts, statisticians, paralegals,
 5 investigators, technologists, administrative assistants, and clerical and administrative personnel
 6 employed by, or contracted with, the Party, provided that such employees or contractors are acting
 7 under the direction or supervision of Counsel and in connection with the Action or any Related 8 Action.

9 2.4 Designating Party. Party or a Non-Party that designates Discovery Material as 10 Protected Material under this Order.

11 2.5 Discovery Material. All documents, items, or information regardless of the medium
 12 or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, but not limited to, testimony, 13 transcripts, electronically stored information, and tangible things) that are produced or generated
 14 in disclosures or responses to discovery in this Action.

15 2.6 Expert. A person who has been retained by a Party or its Counsel to serve as an 16 expert witness or as a consultant in the Matter, including such person’s employees and support 17 staff.

18 2.7 Investigation. The pre-Complaint inquiry by Plaintiffs into potential
 19 anticompetitive conduct by Amazon.com, Inc. that led to the filing of this Action.

20 2.8 Investigation Materials. Documents, testimony or other materials located through 21 a reasonable search and relevant to Plaintiffs’ claims that (i) any Non-Party provided to Plaintiffs,
 22 either voluntarily or under compulsory process, relating to the Investigation; (ii) constitute any 23 communication between Plaintiffs and any Non-Party in connection with and during the 24 Investigation; (iii) any Party provided to any Non-Party relating to the Investigation; or (iv)
 25 Defendant, or affiliated person or entity, provided to Plaintiffs relating to the Investigation.

26 2.9 Matter. This Action together with any Investigation conducted by any Party that culminated in the commencement of this Action.

2.10 Non-Party. Any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity not named as a Party.

2.11 Party. Any entity named as a plaintiff or defendant in this Action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, consultants, Experts, and Outside Counsel.

2.12 Producing Party. A Party or Non-Party that produces Discovery Material in this Action.

2.13 Professional Vendors. Persons or entities that provide litigation support services (for example, photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, providing document management and review services, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

2.14 Protected Material. Any Discovery Material that is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” pursuant to this Order.

2.15 Receiving Party. A Party that receives Discovery Material from a Producing Party.

2.16 Requesting Party. A Party that seeks Discovery Material from another Party or Non-Party in this Action.

3. SCOPE

3.1 The protections conferred by this ~~agreement~~Order cover not only ~~confidential material~~Protected Material (as defined above), but also ~~(1a)~~ any information copied or extracted from ~~confidential material~~Protected Material; ~~(2)~~ Protected Material; ~~(b)~~ all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of ~~confidential material~~Protected Material; and ~~(3c)~~ any testimony, conversations, or presentations by ~~parties~~Parties or their ~~counsel~~Counsel that might reveal ~~confidential material~~Protected Material.

3.2 ~~However, the~~The protections conferred by this ~~agreement~~Order do not cover ~~(a)~~ information that is in the public domain ~~or at the time of disclosure to a Receiving Party~~; ~~(b)~~ information that becomes part of the public domain after such disclosure through trial or otherwise but not involving a violation of this Order or a violation of any confidentiality obligations or commitments that predated the entry of this Order; or (c) any information that the Receiving Party knows prior to the disclosure that it obtains after the disclosure from a source who obtained the information lawfully and under no obligation of confidentiality to the Designating Party.

3.3 Nothing in this Order shall be construed to limit a Producing Party's use of its own Protected Material.

3.4 The Parties agree to negotiate in good faith concerning a separate stipulated order to govern any use of Protected Material at trial in this Action.

4. PROTECTED MATERIAL

4.1 "CONFIDENTIAL" Material. Discovery Material that the Designating Party reasonably believes to contain, describe, or disclose sensitive, non-public, confidential information, including, but not limited to, (1) court records, whether in this District or other courts, currently maintained under seal; (2) information subject to a non-disclosure or confidentiality agreement; (3) employee personnel information; (4) a Non-Party's commercially sensitive information, trade secrets, or competitive or strategic initiatives that are not readily ascertainable and for which the Designating Party has taken reasonable steps to maintain confidentiality; (5) the Designating Party's own commercially sensitive information that it has maintained as confidential including but not limited to (a) research, technical, financial, or accounting information; (b) commercially sensitive internal communications or information; (c) internal business planning documents; and (d) documents reflecting business negotiations, transactions, dealings and/or competition with Non-Parties; (5) information prohibited from disclosure by statute, and (6) personal identifying information subject to redaction under Local Rule 5.2.

4.2 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" Material: Extremely competitively sensitive materials that qualify as "CONFIDENTIAL" and that the Designating Party reasonably believes contain highly sensitive business or personal information, the disclosure of which to another Party or Non-Party would create a substantial risk of serious competitive or commercial harm to the Designating Party, including, for example, (1) trade secrets, such as source code and algorithms, (2) technical details concerning proprietary technology, (3) current or forward-looking internal business strategy documents concerning direct competition with a Party, (5) current or forward looking intellectual property and product development documents, and (6) documents that reflect negotiating positions with respect to a Party.

4.3 The definition of “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” Protected Material shall not include the identity of a Non-Party that is a Producing Party or Designating Party in connection with this Matter.

4.5. ACCESS TO AND USE OF ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ PROTECTED MATERIAL

4.5.1 Basic Principles. A ~~receiving party~~ Receiving Party may use ~~confidential material~~ Protected Material that is disclosed or produced by another ~~party~~ Party or by a ~~non-party~~ Non-Party in connection with this ~~case~~ Action only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this ~~litigation~~ ~~Confidential material~~ Action. Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the conditions described in this ~~agreement~~ ~~Confidential material~~ Order. Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a ~~receiving party~~ Receiving Party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized under this ~~agreement~~ Order.

4.5.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” ~~Information or Items~~ Material. Unless otherwise ordered by the ~~court~~ Court or permitted in writing by the ~~designating party~~ Designating Party, a ~~receiving party~~ Receiving Party may disclose any ~~confidential~~ material designated “CONFIDENTIAL” only to:

(a) ~~the receiving party’s counsel of record in~~ Counsel for Plaintiffs, paralegals and other Professional Vendors (including support and IT staff), and agents or independent contractors retained by Plaintiffs to assist in this ~~action~~ Action whose functions require access to the information;

1 employee of a Party whose statements or communications are quoted, recounted, or summarized
 2 in said Party's document;

3 (h) ~~Filing Confidential~~ during their depositions, any witness in the Action who:
 4 (i) is the Designating Party, a current employee of the Designating Party, a former employee of 5 the Designating Party who was employed by the Designating Party when the Protected Material-
 6 was created, or otherwise had access to such material separate and apart from their involvement in 7 this Matter; (ii) who has signed Exhibit A; and (iii) to whom the disclosure is reasonably necessary
 8 for the litigation of this Action, unless otherwise agreed by the Designating Party or ordered by 9 the Court. Pages of transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal 10 Protected Material must be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to 11 anyone except as permitted under this Order; and

12 (i) any other person as to whom the Designating Party has consented to 13 disclosure.

14 5.3 Disclosure of "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY"
 15 Material. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party,
 16 a Receiving Party may disclose any material designated "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—17 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" only to:

18 (a) those individuals listed in Section 5.2(a)-(b), and 5.2(d)-(i);

19 (b) [AMAZON'S PROPOSAL: the following Designated In-House Counsel,
 20 who Amazon certifies are not involved in Competitive Decision-Making and are not reasonably
 21 likely to become involved in Competitive Decision-Making: (i) Nate Sutton; (ii) Bryson Bachman;
 22 (iii) Larry Reicher; and (iv) Cristina Fernandez;

23 (c) additional Designated In-House Counsel of any Receiving Party substituted
 24 for an individual listed in 5.3(b): (i) who have no involvement in Competitive Decision-Making;
 25 (ii) to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for the litigation of this Action; (iii) who have been
 26 disclosed under Section 5.4 of this Order; and (iv) who are not subject to an objection by a

1 Designating Party under Section 5.4, unless the court overrules such objection.

2 5.4 Procedure for Identifying Designated In-House Counsel Pursuant to Section 5.3(c).
3 Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the Designating Party or otherwise ordered by the court,
4 material designated “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” can be
5 disclosed to Designated In-House Counsel of the Receiving Party contemplated by Section 5.3(c)
6 and not identified in Section 5.3(b) only after:

7 (a) The Receiving Party notifies the Designating Party of: (i) the name(s) of the 8 additional Designated In-House Counsel; (ii) the title and a general description of the 9 responsibilities of those Designated In-House Counsel; and (iii) a certification that (1) the 10 Designated In-House Counsel are not involved in Competitive Decision-Making; and (2) it is not 11 reasonably foreseeable that the Designated In-House Counsel will become involved in 12 Competitive Decision-Making.

13 (b) If the Designating Party fails to object within twenty-one (21) days, the 14 Receiving Party may disclose “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY”
15 material to the Designated In-House Counsel identified pursuant to Section 5.4(a).

16 (c) If the Designating Party objects, it must do so in writing and set forth in 17 detail the grounds on which the objection is based. Upon a written request by the Receiving Party, 18 the Receiving Party and the Designating Party shall meet and confer on the objection to try and 19 resolve the objection. Except by agreement of both the Receiving Party and the Designating Party,
20 such meet and confer should be conducted promptly, and, in any event, within no later than ten 21 (10) days of the written request from the Receiving Party. If the Receiving Party and the 22 Designating Party are unable to reach a resolution after a good faith effort to meet and confer, then
23 either Party may seek any appropriate order following the applicable procedures for such requests
24 from the court. A good faith effort to confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone
25 conference.]

26 5.5 Competitive Decision-Making Bar. Any In-house Counsel who receives material designated “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” shall be prohibited from engaging in any Competitive Decision-Making relating to such material, including taking any new role that would require Competitive Decision-Making relating to such material, for two years after (a) the In-House Counsel no longer has access to such material; or (b) final disposition of this Action, as defined in Section 13.1, whichever is earlier.

4.35.6 Filing Protected Material. Before filing ~~confidential material~~ Protected Material or discussing or referencing ~~such material~~ Protected Material in court filings, the filing party Party shall confer with the ~~designating party~~ Designating Party, in accordance with Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(A), to determine whether the ~~designating party~~ Designating Party will remove the ~~confidential~~ designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. During the meet and confer process, the ~~designating party~~ Designating Party must identify the basis for sealing the specific ~~confidential information at issue~~ Protected Material, and the filing party Party shall include this basis in its motion to seal, along with any objection to sealing the information at issue. Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party Party seeks permission from the ~~court~~ Court to file material under seal. Any motion to seal that requires a Designating Party to make the showing required by Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(B) shall be noted for consideration no earlier than the fourth Friday after filing. A party Party who seeks to maintain the confidentiality designation of ~~its information~~ the Protected Material must satisfy the requirements of Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(B), even if it is not the party Party filing the motion to seal. Failure to satisfy this requirement will result in the motion to seal being denied, in accordance with the strong presumption of public access to the Court’s files.

5.7 Use of Protected Material at Hearings. A Receiving Party shall not reveal or discuss Protected Material at any pre-trial hearing open to individuals not otherwise authorized to receive the Protected Material unless the Receiving Party has, at least fourteen (14) days in advance of the hearing, moved to seal the proceeding or given written notice to the Designating Party of the intended use of such Protected Material. In the latter case, the Receiving Party and the Designating Party shall thereafter meet and confer to determine whether the Protected Material can be used. If they cannot reach agreement, the Designating Party may file a motion to seal the proceeding. If, however, the Party that seeks to use the Protected Material at a hearing for which it had fewer than twenty-one (21) days' advance notice, the Parties will meet and confer within a reasonable time before the hearing.

5.8 Disclosure at trial or at any evidentiary hearing of any document, testimony, or other Protected Material will be governed pursuant to a separate court order. In advance of the filing of a proposed order governing the disclosure of Protected Material at trial or any evidentiary hearing, the Parties shall provide notice of such order to Non-Parties whose Protected Material is expected to be used at trial or any evidentiary hearing.

5.9 Notwithstanding the limitations set forth in this Section and subject to taking appropriate steps to preserve confidentiality, Plaintiffs may disclose Protected Material to other governmental entities, in the manner provided by 16 C.F.R. §§ 4.9-4.11, 15 U.S.C. §§ 46(f), 57b-2. Such entities include officers and employees of Federal or State law enforcement agencies (including duly authorized employees of Plaintiffs) and congressional committees. Any officers or employees of Federal or State law enforcement agencies who will have access to such materials must maintain them in confidence, use them only for official law enforcement purposes, and sign the "Acknowledgement and Agreement to Be Bound (Government Entity)" (Exhibit B). Plaintiffs shall provide a copy of the signed Exhibit B to Defendant prior to providing any Protected Material to a Federal or State law enforcement agency unless the agency requests that Defendant not be notified. Nothing in this subsection shall limit Plaintiffs' ability to share Protected Material with other governmental entities to the extent permitted by law.

6. DISCLOSURE OF HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY MATERIAL TO IN-HOUSE COUNSEL BASED ON NEED

6.1 Defendant may at any time before the trial of this Action request disclosure of

[PROPOSED] PROTECTIVE ORDER

NO. 2:23-CV-01495 - 11 MODEL STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

CASE NUMBER—11

HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY material to [AMAZON’S PROPOSAL: additional] In-House Counsel [AMAZON’S PROPOSAL: not identified in Section 5.3 of this Order] by consent of the Designating Party who made such designation or motion with the Court. Defendant shall provide a written notice to the Designating Party and all Parties to this Action stating with particularity the need for such disclosure. Defendant must meet and confer with the Designating Party to try to resolve the matter by agreement within 7 days of the written notice. If no agreement is reached, Defendant may file a motion with the Court. Defendant will not disclose any HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY material to its In-House Counsel pending resolution of the dispute. If the Court finds the designated In-House Counsel has a particularized need for access to the HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY material that outweighs the risk of harm to the Designating Party or the public interest, Defendant will be able to disclose the HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY material to its designated In-House Counsel notwithstanding Section 5.

5.7. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

~~5.7.1~~ Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each partyParty or non-partyNon-Party that designates information or items for protection under this agreementOrder must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate standards. ~~The designating party~~ and do so in good faith. Unless impractical to do so, the Designating Party must designate for protection only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreementOrder.

Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other partiesParties) expose the ~~designating party~~Designating Party to sanctions.

5 7.2 Designation of Investigation Materials. The following procedures apply to 6 Investigation Materials produced by Defendant and any Non-Party:

7 _____ (a) Upon production by the Plaintiffs in this action, such information shall be
 8 initially treated by the Parties as information designated "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL–
 9 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY."

10 _____ (b) Defendant and any Non-Party may within forty-five (45) days of receiving 11 notice of this Protective Order designate any materials as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY 12 CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY" pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order.
 13 All such materials shall be treated by the Parties as "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS'
 14 EYES ONLY" until the expiration of such forty-five (45) day period. Such materials may be so
 15 designated, if they have not already been designated, by providing written notice by overnight mail
 16 or email and a replacement production to the party to which the materials were produced that 17 includes copies of the materials stamped with the legend "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL –
 18 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," in a manner that will not interfere with legibility, including page
 19 numbering, or audibility. If a Non-Party is unable to submit a replacement production due to 20 burden, it may instead provide written notice by overnight mail or email to the party to which the 21 materials were produced that includes detailed designations of every document that includes 22 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY".

23 (c) If the Non-Party who submitted the information to the Plaintiffs fails to designate such 24 materials within forty-five (45) days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, any 25 information submitted by the Non-Party to the Plaintiffs and produced by the Plaintiffs in this
 26 action shall be re-designated as "CONFIDENTIAL."

(d) If a Non-Party Protected Person believes that this Order does not adequately protect its Protected Material, it may, upon notice that its Protected Material will be shared and receipt of a copy of this Order, seek additional protection from the Court within seventeen (17) days of notice. If a Non-Party seeks additional protection from the Court, the Investigation Materials at issue for which additional protection has been sought will not be provided to other Persons, aside from Outside Counsel, until the Court has ruled.

5.27.3 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this ~~agreement~~Order (see, e.g., ~~second paragraph of section 5.2(b)~~Section 7.4(a)-(d) below), or as otherwise stipulated or ordered, ~~disclosure or discovery material~~Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this ~~agreement~~Order must be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced. If a Producing Party or Designating Party identifies a document or transcript (or a portion thereof) as “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” to the extent such material is produced and unless otherwise impractical to do so, the Producing Party shall produce, upon request of the Receiving Party, a version of said document or transcript wherein the “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY” material is redacted, in addition to an unredacted copy.

7.4 Manner and Timing of Designations in Particular Circumstances:

(a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents and deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), the ~~designating party~~Designating Party must affix the word “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” to each page that contains ~~confidential material.  8 ~~exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non party desires to protect confidential information~~
 9 ~~at trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre trial conference.~~

10 For those documents in a Producing Party's possession, custody, or control that 11 another Party or Non-Party wishes to designate as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "HIGHLY 12 CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY," nothing in this Order shall be construed to 13 preclude such Producing Party from coordinating with such Designating Party to facilitate the 14 process or procedure for affixing any appropriate designation legends or other markings, but the 15 substantive designation determinations shall be the sole responsibility of the Designating Party.

16 ~~(b) — Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: A~~

Material, and the title page shall be followed by a list of all pages (including line numbers as appropriate) that have been designated as Protected Material, along with the level of protection being asserted. Any Non-Party testimony provided in depositions, investigational hearings, or other proceedings held in connection with this Matter but prior to the entry of this Order shall be handled in accordance with Section 8. To the extent necessary, the Parties shall confer as to a reasonable process for designating any testimony by a Party given in connection with this Matter, but prior to the entry of this Order.

(c) Electronic files or information contained in native electronic format not reasonably amendable to the procedures set forth for information in documentary form: The Designating Party shall append to the file names the legend, “CONFIDENTIAL” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY,” or by any other reasonable method for appropriately designating the files as such, including by making such designations in reasonably accessible metadata associated with the files.

~~(e)(d)~~ Other tangible items: ~~the producing party~~ or information in another form: ~~the Designating Party~~ must affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word “CONFIDENTIAL.” or “HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL—ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, the ~~producing party~~ Designating Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s) and the level of protection asserted.

~~5.37.5~~ Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the ~~designating party’s~~ Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this ~~agreement~~ Order for such material. Upon timely correction of a designation, the ~~receiving party~~ Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

6.8. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

[PROPOSED] PROTECTIVE ORDER

NO. 2:23-CV-01495 - 16 ~~MODEL STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER~~

CASE NUMBER — 16

~~6-18.1~~ 6-18.1 Timing of Challenges. Any ~~party~~Party or ~~non-party~~Non-Party may challenge a designation of ~~confidentiality~~Protected Material at any time. ~~Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party's confidentiality designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a~~ party~~A Party~~ does not waive its right to challenge a ~~confidentiality~~confidential or highly confidential designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the original designation is disclosed.

~~6-28.2~~ 6-28.2 Meet and Confer. The ~~parties~~Parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute regarding confidential and highly confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding confidential and highly confidential designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or in a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer conference with other affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without ~~court~~Court action. The certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith effort to confer requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

~~6-38.3~~ 6-38.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without ~~court~~Court intervention, the ~~designating party~~Designating Party may file and serve a motion to retain ~~confidentiality~~a confidential or highly confidential designation under Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden of persuasion in any such motion shall be on the ~~designating party~~Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the ~~challenging party~~Challenging Party to sanctions. ~~All parties~~Unless the Designating Party has waived the designation of any challenged Protected Material by failing to file a motion as describe above, all Parties shall continue to maintain the material in question as ~~confidential~~Protected Material until the ~~court~~Court rules on the challenge.

9. NON-PARTY PROTECTED MATERIAL

[PROPOSED] PROTECTIVE ORDER

NO. 2:23-CV-01495 - 17~~MODEL STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER~~

CASE NUMBER — 17

1 9.1 Non-Party Discovery Material from Plaintiffs' Pre-Complaint Investigations.
2 Within seven (7) business days of the entry of this Order by the Court, Plaintiffs shall provide a
3 copy of the Order to any Non-Party who provided Discovery Material to Plaintiffs in connection
4 with this Matter but prior to the entry of this Order, including during any Investigation by Plaintiffs
5 that culminated in the filing of a Complaint in this Action, and for which Plaintiffs are under a
6 statutory or other legal obligation, or an agreement with the Non-Party, to maintain such Discovery
7 Material on a confidential basis. If any Non-Party receiving such notice from Plaintiffs fails to 8 object within twenty-one (21) days, Plaintiffs may not withhold the production of such Discovery
9 Material on the basis of any confidentiality obligation to the Non-Party. If the Non-Party objects, 10 it must do so in writing and set forth in detail the grounds on which the objection is based.
11 Defendant and the objecting Non-Party shall meet and confer on the objection to try and resolve
12 the objection. Except by agreement of both Defendant and the Non-Party, such meet and confer
13 should be conducted promptly, and, in any event, within no later than ten (10) days of the written 14 request from Defendant. If Defendant and the Non-Party are unable to reach a resolution after a 15 good faith effort to meet and confer, then either Defendant or the Non-Party may seek any 16 appropriate order following the applicable procedures for such requests from the Court.

17 9.2 Non-Party Discovery Material Requested from a Party. In the event that a Party is 18 required, by a valid discovery request or Court order, to produce Discovery Material from a Non-
19 Party in this Action—other than the Non-Party Discovery Material contemplated by Section 9.1—20 where the Party is subject to a statutory or other legal obligation, or an agreement with the Non-
21 Party, to maintain such Discovery Material on a confidential basis, then the Party shall promptly,
22 but in any event no later than fourteen (14) days after receiving a valid discovery request or Court
23 order: (i) notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party that some or all of the Discovery
24 Material requested is subject to a statutory or other legal obligation, or an agreement between the 25 Producing Party and the Non-Party, to maintain the information on a confidential basis; and (ii)
26 provide the Non-Party with a copy of this Order (to the extent not already provided pursuant to

1 Section 8.1), and the relevant discovery requests(s) or Court order. Unless the Non-Party has
2 previously waived its opportunity to object to this Order pursuant to any provision in this Section
3 8, the Non-Party shall have twenty-one (21) days to either (i) consent to the disclosure of the 4 requested Discovery Material subject to designations that the Non-Party may make in accordance 5 with the procedures set forth in Section 6; or (ii) notify the Requesting Party, in writing, that the 6 Non-Party objects to disclosure of the requested Discovery Material. If any Non-Party receiving 7 such notice fails to object within twenty-one (21) days), the Producing Party may not withhold the 8 production of such Discovery Material on the basis of any confidentiality obligation to the Non-
9 Party. If the Non-Party objects, it must do so in writing and set forth in detail the grounds on 10 which the objection is based. The Requesting Party and the Non-Party shall meet and confer on 11 the objection to try and resolve the objection. Except by agreement of both the Requesting Party
12 and the Non-Party, such meet and confer should be conducted promptly, and, in any event, within 13 no later than ten (10) days of the written request from the Requesting Party. If the Requesting 14 Party and the Non-Party are unable to reach a resolution after a good faith effort to meet and confer, 15 then either the Requesting Party or the Non-Party may seek any appropriate order following the 16 applicable procedures for such requests from the Court.

17 9.3 Discovery Material Produced By A Non-Party After The Entry of this Order. To 18 the extent a Non-Party agrees to produce or is ordered to produce Discovery Material in this Action
19 after the Entry of this Order, the Non-Party shall be protected by the remedies and relief available
20 under this Order. Unless the Non-Party has previously waived its opportunity to object to this
21 Order pursuant to any provision in this Section 8, the Non-Party shall have twenty-one (21) days
22 from receiving a copy of this Order to object to this Order. If the Non-Party objects, it must do so
23 in writing and set forth in detail the grounds on which the objection is based. The Parties and the 24 Non-Party shall meet and confer on the objection to try and resolve the objection. Except by 25 agreement of both Parties and the Non-Party, such meet and confer should be conducted promptly, 26 and, in any event, within no later than ten (10) days of the written request from the Non-Party. If the Parties and the Non-Party are unable to reach a resolution after a good faith effort to meet and confer, then either of the Parties or the Non-Party may seek any appropriate order following the applicable procedures for such requests from the Court.

7.10. PROTECTED MATERIAL REQUESTED, SUBPOENAED, OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

If a ~~party~~Party is served with a valid discovery request, subpoena, or a court order issued in other litigation that compels disclosure of any ~~information or items designated in this action as~~ “CONFIDENTIAL,” that ~~party~~Protected Material, that Party must:

(a) promptly notify the ~~designating party~~Designating Party in writing and include a copy of the valid discovery request, subpoena, or court order;

(b) promptly notify in writing the ~~party~~Party or Non-Party who served the discovery request or caused the subpoena or order to issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the discovery request, subpoena, or order is subject to this ~~agreement~~Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this ~~agreement~~Order; and

(c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by the ~~designating party~~Designating Party whose ~~confidential material~~Protected Material may be affected.

8.11. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

If a ~~receiving party~~Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed ~~confidential material~~Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this ~~agreement~~Order, the ~~receiving party~~Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing the ~~designating party~~Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the ~~protected material~~Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this ~~agreement, and~~Order, (d) request that such person or persons execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A, and (e) meet-and-confer in good faith with the Designating Party on additional corrective measures to be implemented in response to the disclosure.

9.12. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

When a ~~producing party~~Producing Party gives notice to ~~receiving parties~~Receiving Parties that certain inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the ~~receiving parties~~Receiving Parties are those set forth in ~~Federal Rule of Civil Procedure~~Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The ~~parties~~Parties agree to the entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

10-13. DURATION, FINAL DISPOSITION, NON-TERMINATION, AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

13.1 Duration and Final Disposition. This Order shall continue in effect until at least the final disposition of this Action unless it is withdrawn, overruled, or modified by Court order.

For purposes of this Order, final disposition shall be the later of (1) a dismissal of all claims and defenses in this Action, with or without prejudice, pursuant to a settlement agreement, or (2) a final judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, rehearings, remands, trials, or reviews of this Action, including the time for filing any motions or applications for extension of time under applicable law.

~~10-13.2~~ Non-Termination and Return of Documents. Within sixty (60) days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, final disposition of this Action as defined in Section 12.1, unless modified by agreement of the Receiving Party and Producing Party, each receiving party must return all confidential material to the producing party. Receiving Party shall certify to the other Party the destruction of any Protected Material received from any Party or Non-Party, including all copies, extracts, and summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree

2 Notwithstanding this provision, ~~counsel~~Counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of 3 all documents filed with the ~~court~~Court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, legal 4 memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product,
5 and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials contain ~~confidential~~
6 ~~material~~Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute Protected Material
7 remain subject to the confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order.

8 ~~The~~Even after the final disposition of this Action, the confidentiality obligations imposed
9 by this ~~agreement~~Order shall remain in effect until a ~~designating party~~Designating Party agrees 10 otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.

PURSUANT TO STIPULATION, IT IS SO ORDERED

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that pursuant to Fed. R. Evid. 502(d), the production of any documents, electronically stored information (ESI) or information, whether inadvertent or otherwise, in this proceeding shall not, for the purposes of this proceeding or any other federal or state proceeding, constitute a waiver by the producing party of any privilege applicable to those documents, including the attorney-client privilege, attorney work product protection, or any other privilege or protection recognized by law. This Order shall be interpreted to provide the maximum protection allowed by Fed. R. Evid. 502(d). The provisions of Fed. R. Evid. 502(b) do not apply. Nothing contained herein is intended to or shall serve to limit a party's right to conduct a review of documents, ESI or information (including metadata) for relevance, responsiveness and/or segregation of privileged and/or protected information before production. Information produced in discovery that is protected as privileged or work product shall be immediately returned to the producing party.
